

NAPTOSA GAUTENG

Professional Development Programme: October to November 2019

Preparing for Grade 4 - Pamela Diesel (One session) [Course Number 2019/453]

This session considers why there is such a significant gap between grade 3 and grade 4 and suggests ways to make the transition from grade 3 to grade 4 as smooth as possible.

Grade 3/ grade 4 teachers

Grade R- Dr Melodie de Jager (One session) [Course Number 2019/454]

If we want grade R to make a difference to our matric results, what should we be doing differently?

Foundation Phase teachers

Positive Discipline in the Foundation Phase Classroom - Pamela Diesel (One session)

[Course Number 2019/455]

This session provides practical and very useful and tested ideas on how teachers can manage their classrooms more effectively

Foundation Phase teachers

Community Mapping - Childline Presenter / Gita Dennen (One session) [Course Number 2019/456]

What is “community mapping”, how do we create a “community map” for our schools and who should be on it?

All teachers

Continuing Professional Development in the 21st Century – Jennifer Becker (One session)

[Course Number 2019/457]

Are you ready to ditch the traffic, save time and money and join teachers from all over the world for CPTD? Are you 21st century literate? Teachable, Zoom, Udemy, webinars, Facebook live – what does it all mean? What are the latest trends for continuous professional development in the rest of the world? During this workshop we will explore world of online learning. We will show you practical examples and share tips on how to navigate online training and how evaluate your options to make sure you choose quality training that you will benefit from. It doesn't end there. We will show you how to navigate the online communities of teachers from all over the world, to continue your learning experience and sharing of ideas. To get the most from the workshop, bring your cellphone along and make sure you have data to download the Zoom mobile app to make your transition into online training quick and easy.

All teachers

Bullying baffles brains- Dr Judy Jaye (One session) [Course Number 2019/458]

Are you exposed to any form of bullying? It can be in the workplace, at home or in the community but it always gets you down? Learn practical skills to combat any form of bullying or nastiness you may encounter in your daily life. Be equipped with the essential skills of RESILIENCE.

All teachers

